

Specialist Workshop

„Multi-Parenthood in Germany and the Netherlands – Possible Ways of Legal Regulation“

Deutsches Institut für Menschenrechte
Zimmerstraße 26-27, 10969 Berlin
11 April 2024

10.30 a.m. Arrival, Coffee

11.00 a.m. Welcome

Part I Inputs

Interview und Moderation: Björn Sieverding, NELFA

11.15 a.m. Interview with Dr. Christine Wegner, founder of the German co-parenting-platform „familyship“, and Christian Gladel, father in a binational multi-parenthood family

11.45 a.m. Multi-Parenthood in the Netherlands, Wilma Eusman
Wilma Eusman is a Dutch family lawyer and activist with decades of experience in LGBTIQ+ family law. She was a member of the Dutch State Commission for the Reassessment of Parenthood from 2014 to 2016.

12.30 p.m. Multi-Parenthood in Germany, Prof. Dr. Anne Sanders
Anne Sanders is a German law professor and has published extensively on the topic of legal regulation of multi-parenthood.

1.30 p.m. Lunch Break
Warm lunch buffet (vegan)

Part II Workshop

2.30 p.m. How to Regulate Multi-Parenthood in German Law
Moderation: Gabriela Lünsmann, LSVD

4.30 p.m. Political Advocacy Strategies
Moderation: Christian Gladel, Meer Dan Gewenst

5.00 p.m. End of workshop